ABOUT THE MODERN FOREIGN LANGUAGES FACULTY

The faculty of Modern Foreign Languages is a small, dynamic team that focuses on engaging and quality teaching and learning across all Key Stages. We are currently participating in the DfE languages hub project led by Rachel Hawkes, the team at York University and NCELP and during this exciting opportunity, we are seeking to expand our team.

We currently teach Spanish at KS3 and KS4 and have recently introduced Spanish at KS5. We are keen to develop this and continue promoting languages in our Sixth Form.

Our KS3 scheme of learning is designed to provide the necessary foundations to prepare our students well for the new GCSE specification whilst providing a cultural journey, inspiring students and promoting a love of language. Students are immersed in the language throughout KS3 and Spanish is an increasingly popular GCSE choice amongst pupils at our school. All KS4 students follow the AQA GCSE courses and have access to a range of resources including the Activeteach VIVA scheme.

We encourage language experiences beyond the classroom and have links with schools in Spain, we also run popular, cultural visits to Spain.

Our aim is to continue achieving progress in results through collaboration, commitment and a passion for excellent teaching and learning.
