Job title: Specialist Teacher (Early Years)

Full-time, permanent

MPS + 1- 2 SEN Points (Depending on relevant qualifications & experience)

UPS may be available for exceptional candidates.

Lancashire County Council is seeking to appoint a Specialist Teacher to join their Inclusion Service (Specialist Teaching Service – STS). The successful candidate would be expected to work across Lancashire supporting children with SEND, settings and their families.

The Specialist Teaching Service is a specialist peripatetic specialist teaching service that supports the local Authority and Lancashire Settings and Schools in meeting the needs of children and young people with special educational needs and disabilities. The service consists of highly qualified and experienced Specialist Teachers, Higher Level Teaching Assistants, Deaf Role Model and Sensory Technicians. We work closely with parents and other agencies to support children and young people in a range of settings including at home, early years settings, schools and colleges. From birth we support the youngest children with SEND through Portage and Early Years Sensory Support.

The role will consist of:

- Supporting children with SEND within Early Years settings and transitioning into school.
- Supporting Early Years practitioners and SENCO's within settings and schools.
- Liaising with parents and carers supporting them through the Education, Health and Care Needs Assessment process.
- Working in partnership with settings, parents & carers, and other agencies to meet the needs of the children.
- Managing a caseload effectively.
- Using IT effectively to support both teaching and administration.

We are looking for an enthusiastic, highly motivated Early Years Specialist Teacher who will contribute to the key work of the Specialist Teaching Service by:

- Have strong moral SEND values with the vision and determination to make a difference
- Experience working at a SENDCO level would be desirable.
- Be committed to an inclusive approach to education.
- Be accountable for improving outcomes for all children and young people.
- The successful candidate will be a Qualified Teacher who has successfully completed their statutory induction and an additional SEND qualification would be desirable.
- Can show evidence of experience of working with children and young people with a range of special educational needs to ensure they receive a high-quality educational experience that meets their needs

- Are able to work collaboratively with children receiving SEND support or those with EHCPs, their families and settings/ schools.
- Are able to provide support and challenge various settings, establishing clear actions for all partners, and evaluate the progress being made against these
- Can confidently model teaching approaches to setting & school staff and raise standards for children with SEND.
- This post is not suitable for NQTs.

We can offer:

- An opportunity to join a friendly professional team committed to raising standards across education for SEND children and young people
- Experienced staff who can offer support as you develop your role in settings and schools.
- Professional development opportunities in line with service development.
