Dear Applicant,

Thank you for expressing an interest in our vacancy for SENCO. This position is not class based in order for the successful candidate to apply themselves fully to the role, ensuring that the curriculum and provision are enabling for the SEND pupils in our school. We are a large primary school (with a nursery) of 450 pupils and currently 18% of our school population on the SEND register and 40% are in receipt of the pupil premium.

The successful applicant will contribute to raising standards of SEND pupils' attainment across the school; monitoring and supporting the overall progress and development of all SEND pupils as a leader; raise standards and rates of progress for SEND / LAC / DAP / EAL pupils. They will support teaching and learning and be instrumental in the strategic development of our school as we aim for further success on our journey towards excellence.

This is an exciting opportunity for a highly skilled and motivated professional, who has a passion for improving schools, embracing new opportunities and finding inventive solutions to complex problems.

The successful candidate will demonstrate:

- A true understand of inclusion and how this translates across all three primary phases;
- An extraordinary level of organisation.
- Resilience and a commitment to providing challenging and exciting learning opportunities for all our children.
- Show drive and determination through all their work in school;
- Develop positive relationships with all staff members – supporting them to excel in the classroom.
- A belief that all children can achieve success.
- The ability to support curricular and extra-curricular activities.

We can offer you:

- Clerical support for 0.5 of the week for SEND administrative tasks
- Well-designed systems and procedures for the planning and support of SEND pupils
An ethos that supports children to succeed.
- Happy and enthusiastic children.
- A highly motivated and supportive staff team who are committed to building on the many strengths of the school.
- The opportunity to work in an exciting learning environment where hard work and achievement are appreciated and acknowledged.
- A strong commitment to continual professional development.

We look forward to receiving your application.

Yours faithfully

Mrs N. Ditchburn Hughes
