Excellence and ambition from all, for all

ASSISTANT CURRICULUM LEADER IN MODERN FOREIGN LANGUAGES required for September 2024.

Main Professional Scale + TLR 2.3 + retention point to be discussed at interview

Are you passionate about Modern Foreign Languages and determined to make a real difference? At Longridge High School we believe our pupils deserve the very best – ‘Excellence and ambition from all, for all.’

If you are an inspirational and ambitious teacher who is committed to achieving the very best outcomes from pupils of all levels and ability, we would be delighted to hear from you. This position would suit a teacher looking for a first leadership role within Modern Foreign Languages or someone who already has leadership experience within a Modern Foreign Languages team.

We are looking for:

- A person who really wants to make Modern Foreign Languages the heartbeat of the school.
- A person with the ability and experience to teach French at KS3 and KS4 (The ability to teach Spanish at KS3 and KS4 is desirable but not essential).
- A person who has the vision, drive and motivation to support the Curriculum Leader to develop and improve the department even further.
- A person who can assist with designing, implementing and monitoring a highly ambitious and fully inclusive curriculum at both key stages.
- An inspirational teacher who believes every child has the potential to succeed in Modern Foreign Languages through developing teaching and learning that challenges and inspires young people.
- A person who can motivate and inspire others in a team to ensure that every pupil in Modern Foreign Languages is empowered with a voice in society.

Main Areas of Responsibility:

Please refer to the attached generic job description for Assistant Curriculum Leader.

We can provide:

- A school which is moving forwards and continuing to develop to provide an excellent education for all its pupils.
- A newly appointed Curriculum Leader who has a clear and ambitious vision for developing Modern Foreign Languages across the school.
- The opportunity to grow and develop within a committed and supportive environment.

If this is you, then please apply:
