'Together in Faith and Learning'

Letter to applicants from the Head Girl and Head Boy, Deputies and Year 6 in Rowan Class

Dear applicant,

We are writing on behalf of the pupils of Rufford C.E. Primary School.

We think it is important that our new Headteacher displays the following qualities:

- Is welcoming and a good listener to everyone
- Has a good sense of humour and is sociable and upbeat
- Is approachable, easy to talk to and involved in the whole school
- Is interested in our learning
- Is caring, patient and firm but fair
- Is inclusive and respectful to everyone
- Is confident
- Will work hard to keep everyone in school safe
- Will be a dog lover and bring treats for our lovely School Dog, Barney!
- Will value all of the good things about school, whilst also being determined to bring new ideas to continue to make our school even better
- Will live out our Christian Values everyday
- Will encourage us all to keep finding ways to 'Let our light shine'

Thank you for reading our letter, we look forward to meeting you and wish you luck with your application.

Yours sincerely

George, Head Boy, Ava, Head Girl

Eleanor Deputy Head Girl, Harry, Deputy Head Boy
